—Robin Luftig, Author & Speaker

Bio

“I’m sorry, Mrs. Luftig, but you have a tumor on your brain about the size of my fist. Do you want a priest, or could I call the hospital chaplain for you?”

Spring of 2011, Robin’s life was busy and full of promise when she heard God ask her, “Do you trust Me?” Weeks later with no provocation or warning, Robin suffered a seizure that left her paralyzed on her right side and unable to speak. After hours of tests at the hospital, a doctor came to her and said, “You may only have ten days to live.”

Hear how Robin describes the ten-day journey that took her through the darkest valley of her life. Listen as Robin shares the shock of her present, the fear of losing her future, and a time of reflection over a tempestuous past that she had allowed define her for too many years. And witness how God continued to stay with her through the many hours of surgery as well as the weeks of physical, speech, and occupational therapy.

This is a story of redemption and triumph over brokenness. It’s a story about facing fears beyond imagination and discovering that there is no place so far from God that he cannot reach through and redeem a willing heart.

Word on the Street about Robin-----

“Robin's story (God's Best During Your Worst) is not an easy hear. It's brutally honest and transparent about the reality of pain and brokenness. But as you take this journey with her one thing is unmistakable, the love, mercy and companionship of Christ.”

*Sheila Walsh,
Inspirational Speaker and Author*

“We are so glad that we invited Robin to speak at our event. Comments from our attendees: Well-done, gifted, interesting, uplifting, well presented, inspiring, very good, great witness, gifted speaker & author. Thank you, thank you, thank you for speaking at our event!”

D. Sebata, Event Planner

“Robin embraces real life questions, fears, and other emotions with transparency as she shares with first-hand experience of God's incredible gift of grace and mercy. While no one desires to face trials, what she gained through the experience was worth anything she lost in the process.”

*Dr. Michelle Bengtson, Board Certified Clinical Neuropsychologist
Author, Hope Prevails*

“Robin Luftig is a rare Christian communicator. She doesn't gloss over her past, nor does she push it to the forefront. It's simply a powerful part of her deliverance message ... a message that focuses on God and the unconditional love He offers to us all, no matter what we've done or what's been done to us.”

*Patricia Durgin
Founder & Host, Marketers On A Mission, Atlanta, Georgia*

"Robin Luftig is authentic, real, and the kind of speaker who helps women peel back the layers of life in a way that shows them how beautiful they truly are. Her message inspires the audience to taste grace and her delivery touches the hearts of the listeners in a way that forever changes them."

*Tammy Whitehurst,
Speaker, Author, Co-Owner of the Christian Communicators Conference. Texas*

In 2009, Robin founded Renew Ministries, sharing with spiritually- and emotionally broken women that God has a plan of healing for their lives. She has also worked in unchurched settings, offering guidance in trusting God and how that trust can manifest itself in their lives. Her book, God's Best During Your Worst is a 2020 Golden Scroll winner as well as the recipient of the coveted BRMCWC's Director's Choice award in 2021. She teaches on memoir writing, and the power behind word—both written and spoken. She and her husband Lew attend Lighthouse Church in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and serves on its governance board. She teaches Sunday morning and home group discussions as her schedule allows.
